Reviewer's Comments:

The interface is very clear and concise, making it easy for the user to navigate through the creation of questions. It gives a natural dialogue that most people would certainly understand. The interface is also consistent with its requirements and its mood, not being too domineering and intrusive.

One thing that could be improved on is feedback, like when the interface asks the user if he/she is sure of what he/she inputted. But overall, it is just a small change.

Another thing is that Help and Documentation can also be provided and more in depth to the user for FAQs and for some information about the creators.
